CAPTURE THE LOCAL MARKET

In our thriving Inner West community of over 50,000 people, there are lots of decisions being made. How much of the local market have you captured?

■ MORE SALES

Introduce your business to new patrons. Even if you only get a few locals to become regular clients that will make a big difference to your bottom line.

■ WORD OF MOUTH

Ciao is word of mouth. So often we hear “I saw it in Ciao”. The localised content, the people, the characters, the recommendations are credible and create business. People talk. They tell other people about successful encounters and they like to be positioned as the experts. They like to be in the know.

■ POSITIONING

Ciao is unique. It is independent, intelligent and savvy. The Inner West has shifted towards a creative class, a latte set that appreciate the Inner West lifestyle. Ciao reflects this. (We cover coffee, sustainable practice, local government, education, fashion and more)

■ LOCAL

Our readers respect the local community. They would rather support local business than bigger unknown brands. We are moving away from globalisation towards local, known businesses.

■ FREE EDITORIAL AND ON-LINE SUPPORT

Utilise our website to reach a larger audience. Free links. All measureable and trackable.

■ DEMOGRAPHIC

Our demographic is smart savvy, aged between 18 and 45 years, mortgaged and renting, has an appreciation of the European lifestyle, is politically aware, educated and professional, and always on the lookout for something new. They are AB, lovers of food, wine, coffee, leisure, community and travel.

Our emphasis on the positive aspects of our community have allowed us to flourish. We have a real sense of our local environment, our local people, our local businesses and our local governments. Food, fashion, coffee and of course people are all well represented in Ciao – our goal is to make you look your best.
