

THERE'S MORE TO DULWICH HILL.

Well Met by Moonlight: Discover Dulwich Hill

Lets explore what happens as the sun sets on our favourite Inner West village, Dulwich Hill. As the weather warms up, many local operators are stepping up their game to offer locals even more great fare, fun and family atmosphere after normal business hours. Easy to get to, safe and great value, Dulwich Hill after hours is the perfect option for those that don't want to leave the couch but want to soak up a vibrant village. Whether it is twilight cheese and wine after work, dinner with friends and family, a long boozy catch up with girlfriends or late night dessert indulgence, Dulwich Hill's local nighttime attractions will help you get out and stay out (late)!

For more updates go to facebook.com/dulwichhillvillage

The Eate - Charcoal and Spit grill
Random nights til late – walk past and drop in if the light is on!
www.facebook.com/jbsoncanterbury

Dolly'z Pasta (JBs on Canterbury)
Popular daytime café, JB's on Canterbury, transforms into a cosy melting pot of cuisine by night called Dolly'z. Introducing Art Lounge evenings, Pasta Wednesdays and Anglo-Indian Fridays (BYO wine and kiddies corner), JB's and Dolly'z Cafe on Canterbury is rapidly evolving into a Cafe Art Lounge for non-hipster hipsters.
428 New Canterbury Rd Dulwich Hill
www.facebook.com/jbsoncanterbury
Open until late

Suburgia (Shoe Chef Café) - House Made Burgers/Small Bar
Every Friday and Saturday night from 5-9pm, this popular café will transform into a licensed burger and hot dog joint, called Suburgia. Suburgia will offer a wholly different menu from the café, including gourmet hot dogs, tasty burgers, and plenty of sides, including Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream for dessert! Try the Mac and Cheese Croquettes with Truffle Mayo and staple Shoestring Fries (unmissable).
426 New Canterbury Rd Dulwich Hill
www.facebook.com/Suburgia
Open until late

Miss Hu - Vietnamese and Asian Cuisine
Specialising in Vietnamese cuisine, but extending to other Asian dishes such as Wagyu beef and Peking duck, Singapore style vegetarian laksa and Thai papaya salad, the chef's broad approach to the menu does not disappoint.
465 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.misshu.com.au
5:30pm to 10pm

The Hub House Diner - American Style Diner
The Hub House Diner serves a mouthwatering fusion of Australian cafe favourites and American diner cuisine. Start your meal with Southern Fried Chicken and top it off with a deconstructed snickers dessert.
410-412 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.thehubhousediner.com.au
Closes 9pm (Sundays 8pm)

Mr Dee's - Piano Bar and Lebanese Restaurant
This long awaited opening has locals chomping at the bit. With an army of FOMO camera-ready foodies desperately waiting to get inside to see what Arabic jewels can be posted on Instagram first. The old Abla's was an institution for decades. Mr Dee's is open Wednesday to Sunday for dinner and show with tasty lebanese delights including traditional banquets and the best lebanese musicians and singers.
425 New Canterbury Rd Dulwich Hill
www.facebook.com/medeespianobar

Oricco Charcoal Chicken & Mediterranean Grill - Mediteranean style chicken
This Dulwich Hill staple never fails to satisfy hungry Inner Westies. They serve large portions of divine tasting Mediterranean charcoal chicken, burgers and wraps in a laid-back place with outdoor tables. Hundreds of regular weekly cab drivers can't be wrong.
409 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.facebook.com/oriccochicken
Till 8:30pm

Tella Balls -Dessert Bar
Indulge in a bit of night-time decadence. Balls of doughy goodness with a gooey nutella centre, waffles decked out in kinder surprise, milkshakes that satisfy all your sweet-tooth cravings... is there any need to go on?
5/370 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.tellaballsdessertbar.com

Zeus Street Greek - Greek Street Specialties
While you're imagining sun-soaked Greek Islands and divine lamb pita wraps, Zeus Street Greek gets you halfway there. Have a pita each, or share a Spartan Box, and bask in the glory of endless loukoumades.
283/362-372 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.zeusstreetgreek.com.au

Good Feeling Thai
This newish restaurant is bustling and authentic. Great service and fresh produce create fast tasty meals that good Thai restaurants are renowned for. Recommended dishes include Chicken Satay, Peppercorn Eggplant and Roasted Duck with Vegetables in Curry Sauce. Prices are great, ambience and décor are spot on and you'll definitely leave with a good feeling.

Shop 1/362-372 New Canterbury Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.goodfeelingthai.com.au
Dinner 5.00pm – 10.00pm

LIGHT RAIL

Kebab & Pizza w/ Little Portugal - Turkish meets Portuguese
532 Marrickville Rd, Dulwich Hill
Open until 9.30pm

Minh Vietnamese
30 years in the making of authentic Pho and other traditional dishes. Second generation Vietnamese cooking that will make your mouth water. Not fancy just excellent.
506 Marrickville Rd Dulwich Hill
www.minhrestaurant.com.au
Mon – Sat 5pm – 10pm

Sun Thai
Sleek setup with polished floors and pared-down décor, for traditional soups, curry and stir-fries. Specialties include Pad Prew Warr, Goong Sam Roas, Pandan Leaves Chicken, Choo Chee, Sun Thai Chicken and more.
508 Marrickville Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.sunthai.com.au/
Dinner 5pm-10pm

Spartan Grill (Gladstone Hotel) - Modern Australian with Greek flavours
You can't go past the Gladly for a great night. Young Henrys and Batch Brewing Beer on tap, espressotinis to die for, schnitzel nights, trivia nights, badge draw, open mic nights plus live music on Saturdays from 7pm. Make the Gladstone Hotel your first and last stop.
572 Marrickville Rd, Dulwich Hill
www.gladstonehotel.com.au
Open til late

Dulwich Hill Chicken Shop - Charcoal Chicken & Burgers
More than just chicken, Jimmy serves up delicious pasta bakes, potatoes, fresh salads and quality burgers and wraps, this is a dinnertime must.
566 Marrickville Rd, Dulwich Hill

Butcher's Brew - Jazz Small Bar
Butchers Brew is a brand new small bar and live performance venue, set to open in Dulwich Hill in October 2018. They'll be offering high quality live performance seven nights a week, showcasing Sydney's best professional and emerging musicians, as well as regular stand-up comedy evenings.
499 Marrickville Road Dulwich Hill

Manmaru - Japanese Izakaya
Chef Takako Fasolin deliberately uses Japanese ingredients to create contemporary Japanese cuisine to tease Australian palates. They have recently won prizes for their locally famous pies – the vegan and the beef.
495 Marrickville Rd Dulwich Hill
www.manmaru.com.au
Until 9pm nightly

The Larder Epicerie & Wine bar - French Cheese and Wine bar
Produce includes a great range of French cheeses, cold cuts from around the world, and the owner's own duck rilletes and terrine. Make sure you also enjoy the wine bar, which is in operation over the evenings.
489 Marrickville Road Dulwich Hill
www.thelarder489.com.auUntil 6pm

How to get here:

Bus
Catch the 426 and 428 from Newtown or the city. Catch the 444 and 445 from Leichhardt and Balmain.

Light Rail
The Dulwich Hill Line (L1) goes through Glebe, Rozelle, Leichhardt, Lewisham and Summer Hill. $5.20 adult return (Family day pass $22). Alight at Dulwich Grove.

Train
Dulwich Hill railway station is located on Wardell Road, around 1km walk from the Dulwich Hill Village. T3 Bankstown Line trains serve the station. There are frequent services from the Sydney CBD and the south-western suburbs. ($2.50 per adult on Sundays)

Car
There are two major carparks in Dulwich Hill. Enter from Seaview Street for New Canterbury Road venues and from Beach Road for the Marrickville Road cafes and eateries.

Cycle
There are some lovely rides through to Dulwich Hill from Leichhardt and Newtown. The GreenWay corridor that runs between Iron Cove and the Cooks River passes through Dulwich Hill and is a particularly scenic route.

Walk
Nothing like a stroll to get the blood pumping, with a tasty treat to reward your efforts from one of Dulwich Hill's patisseries and bakeries. Lots of dog friendly outdoor areas too.

