

A PLATE OF PETERSHAM

Petersham's smorgasboard of divine culinary delights has expanded to include new flavours, cooking methods and presentation (yes, try getting your food in a plastic bag at Kickin' Inn or your coffee in a cone at The Tiny Giant!). Petersham's unique mix of culture has reached staggering new heights in food innovation while still being wallet friendly. Find out why all the foodies are raving about Fich Tacos at Fich Restaurant or pay tribute to old school institutions like Gloria's and Seed Greek Kouzina

Get down to Petersham this Bairro (Portuguese Food and Wine Fair) on Sunday March 10th, 10am – 6pm. If you miss it, don't worry, you can come any time - you can never have too much on your plate in Petersham!

SILVA'S

Silva's is one of the most popular spots for Portuguese traditional food. The colourful set menu provides a wide selection of quality Portuguese cuisine. Silva's is a fully licensed establishment, with the finest local and Portuguese wines and traditional home style preparation of Portuguese chicken. There's a take-away counter at the front serving chicken, chips and salad but most of those packing the tables in the restaurant are eating seafood and char-grilled meats. A great lunch or dinner spot, Silva's is a tried and tested longtime favourite.

KICKIN' INN KAJUN SEAFOOD

"Taste the Experience" is the tagline of this brand new restaurant concept rolled out in a world first in Petersham. Owners Ravi and Sam wanted food to be fun and delicious. There's premium seafood like Alaskan King crabs, local prawns and meaty lobster cooked to perfection with a range of sauces from garlic butter to 000. The menu is unlike anything ever seen in Sydney. Get messy, don your own bib, rip your food out of a plastic bag and savour the flavour!

GELATO REPUBLIC

With natural ingredients and vegan options, this joint embodies catchy Inner West health trends. These vegan choices aren't sorbets - they're creamy and nutty, closely resembling their dairy counterparts. The owner of the establishment proudly states his favourite flavour on offer is "avocado and balsamic vinegar", and there's plenty of never before seen flavours in the fridges at Gelato Republic. The softer gelato still offers many fan favourite flavours from pistachio to fig and walnut to coffee. But the real reason to visit is for their quirky ever-changing choices like the vegan black sesame. Everyone can enjoy good ice cream all year around,

HOW TO GET HERE

Petersham station is only a short walk to Audley street. Just pop up the stairs towards the roundabout and there you are. Don't forget to check out the yellow wall mosaic that is an important part of the Petersham landscape.

The 412 meanders through Petersham, from Central and detours past RPA, Stanmore and other Inner West precincts. Bus stops on Trafalgar St and New Canterbury Rd. The 445 also goes through Petersham from Balmain.

Petersham is a lovely 20 -40 minute walk from Newtown, Ashfield, Summer Hill and other suburbs. There are some wonderful examples of early Victorian palatial houses that are testament to the bygone (and current) wealth of the area.

If you must drive, there are a few spots to park for free. Street Parking can be found outside the post office. Free council car park is on Regent St opposite the water tower. There is also a carpark on Chester St. Go Get car share pods nearby on Crystal St.
